

Wine Places: The Land, the Wine, the People (Mitchell Beazley Drink)

A stunning collection of over 130 photographs leads readers on a visually exciting tour around the world's most famous wine regions from hidden cellars in Germany to vibrant harvests in South America. Charles O'Rear, a highly regarded photographer for National Geographic, offers a captivating selection of images that dramatically showcase the differences among the international array of landscapes, vineyards, wines, and winemaking. An enlightening narrative, written by a well-traveled wine expert, brings to life the story behind the photos. This breathtaking account of winemaking would make a glamorous gift for any wine lover.
