

I Remember Papa

Every weekend, when the sun rises, Audie wakes up to help his father with the farm work. And every weekend Audie gets paid a quarter. Someday, he'll use the money to see a baseball game or buy a glove. Then one Saturday, Audie and his father go on a train trip to the city. Audie can't believe it. He is filled with anticipation. Will all of his baseball dreams come true? The center of the story is the hallowed relationship between father and son in a bygone era, fondly remembered. -Kirkus Reviews
Baseball fans will appreciate this rich family story. -Booklist
