

Awakenings

Have you lost your religious faith? Then you might know what 23-year-old Thomas Giordano is going through. Realizing that his Catholic faith no longer makes sense, Thomas falls into despair and becomes estranged from his religious family. He clashes most with his devout sibling Christian, who wonders what has happened to his brother and former kindred spirit. Over time Thomas discovers a new sense of purpose and forges new friendships, escaping the pitfalls of fatalism while learning to live without God. Yet even as he salvages his life, Thomas must somehow repair the growing rift with Christian, and rescue his brother from a spiritual crisis every bit as terrible as his own. If you're one of the many who've let go of their faith, or the countless others who've struggled with doubt and the troubles it can bring, this book will speak to you.
