

Checkmate: The Games Men Play

Have you ever wondered why men act the way they do and why they refuse to give up what they call their players card? In the national bestseller, Checkmate: The Games Men Play, Mark Crutcher writes an empowering book for women to gain understanding of the dating process as well as the tricks and techniques men who are players vow never to reveal. A former player, ladies man and even a gigolo, Mr. Crutcher has given up his players card in an effort to help relinquish the heavy burden on his heart. Checkmate provides uncut and uncensored access into the secret moves that men who are players use to win womens hearts, souls, minds and of course, their bodies. In a chess match, the objective is to place the opponents king in an inescapable position on the game board. In the game that players play, the objective is to persuade women to maintain casual, uncommitted, sexual relationships with them. By the time women realize that a players intentions are purely physical, it is too late. They are already addicted to the experiences they have shared and cannot or will not let go. Checkmate. Checkmate: The Games Men Play will have you looking beyond your normal perceptions of reality and seeing the true meaning behind a mans actions and words.
