

Janner on Meetings

In this new edition of the Janner on Meetings, author Greville Janner presents a complete guide to success with meetings. Whether you organize, address or chair meetings, this book offers guidelines to propel you to mastery. The author illuminates every aspect of this important subject, from coping with nerves to using visual aids, handling hecklers and preparing minutes. He reveals the secrets of thinking on your feet, the skills of self-presentation and the special touches that make occasions memorable. The revised edition contains fresh material, including a new section summarizing key points in checklist form. Greville Janner's advice applies to meetings large and small, public and private, business, professional and personal. The book is a distillation of his unique experience as a public speaker and committee chair.
