

Celebrating Daily Prayer

In May Church House Publishing are launching the Church of England's new Daily Office Book under the title Common Worship Daily Prayer. This book has been modelled on Continuum's bestselling Celebrating Common Prayer. To coincide with the launch we are launching Celebrating Daily Prayer, an updated pocket edition of Celebrating Common Prayer. In May 2005 The Church of England published the definitive version of its new Daily Office book, Common Worship Daily Prayer. The new office book is based on The Society of St Francis bestselling Celebrating Common Prayer, published by Continuum. Celebrating Daily Prayer is the compact edition of Common Worship Daily Prayer and the new edition of the pocket edition of Celebrating Common Prayer. Whilst retaining all the essential features of the full office book, Celebrating Daily Prayer condenses Common Worship Daily Prayer into a user-friendly, portable format, ideal for personal use. The main features of Celebrating Daily Prayer are the integration of the Psalms and Collects into the office setting and the inclusion of a short reading for each day, making this edition particularly suitable for personal prayer. All the texts in Celebrating Daily Prayer are in line with recent revisions to the Common Worship Daily Prayer.
