

RESCUED: Relocating, Restoring & Reviving the PRETTY LADY: An Old Alaska Boat -- A New Idaho Crew

. An Old Alaska Boat. A New Idaho Crew. RESCUED Relocating, Restoring, and Reviving the PRETTY LADY This short photo essay is not just about renovating a boat, but about reviving a family treasure. It is about maintaining one mans legacy that began in the dusty heart of Oklahoma in 1926 when a 10-year-old boy named Melvin paged through his fourth-grade geography book and saw a photo of Alaska. It was at that moment that Melvins dream of living in Alaska began, followed by his wish to build a boat to take him there. Melvin built three large backyard boats during his lifetime. The first was sold to build a larger boat. The second took him from Arkansas to Alaska. The third, the PRETTY LADY, was built in Alaska. RESCUED is about bringing the PRETTY LADY, after ten years of sitting idle, back to life.
