

Dont Flinch - Barry Alvarez: The Autobiography Wisconsin's All-Time Winningest Coach

The Story of

Despite inheriting a moribund college football program, and half-empty stadium, Barry Alvarez never compromised his values, never flinched even after a 1-10 first season and never stopped believing in his blue print for success at the University of Wisconsin. By establishing a solid foundation, adhering to fundamentals and demanding an uncommon toughness from his players, Alvarez became the architect of three Rose Bowl triumphs in the 90s and became the schools all-time winningest football coach. While changing the culture of the sport on the Madison campus, raising expectations to heretofore unthinkable levels, Alvarez left an indelible mark on the Badgers during his 16 seasons on the sidelines. Not only did Alvarez take over a Big Ten footwipe and build the program into national prominence, but he sustained the success by sticking to a plan rooted to his upbringing in Western Pennsylvania and his exposure to three legendary coaches, Nebraskas Bob Devaney, Iowas Hayden Fry and Notre Dames Lou Holtz. In his autobiography Dont Flinch Alvarez talks about the lessons that he learned from his mentors, the hurdles that he had to overcome as a young assistant and high school coach, and the challenge of taking over his own college program while living in a fishbowl, especially from his familys perspective. Alvarez maps out a strategy and game plan for young coaches who are seeking to achieve similar goals, and he also talks about his future as Wisconsin athletics director, and the future of college football.
