

CYBORG MASTERS: The War of Tears

A merciless war rages on in the far regions of our galaxy, a war in which cybernetic machines fulfill their Masters mandate of extermination for all intelligent life forms emerging as a space faring species. Elder Amaroke searching for the key to end his damnation and obtain gods redemption for his people secretly defies the mandates of his clan and the evil plague they have released. Commander Katell Cah-tah fighting a war without hope of survival searches the depths of space hoping to discover a warrior species much like his own. A warrior species, which cherishes the sanctity of life for all living beings over the horrors of war, but when pressed to do so could wage a war with deadly consequences. Rescued from a fate worse than death itself, Navy Seal commando Jesse Colton, a man searching for inner peace and a sense of belonging, finds himself facing a destiny he is reluctant to accept. Tim is running out, plants and civilizations were being lost. Bound together by a secret prophecy of God, these three men of vastly different worlds must join each other in brotherhood to save their planets and the galaxy from the cyborg Masters relentless onslaught. William L. Frame resides in California. The publication of this book was the fruition of a lifelong dream.
