

Healthy Dinner Party Recipes

In our hectic lives, we often feel we don't have enough time to entertain as it involves too much preparation and cooking time, and with so many people having food allergies and complicated dietary requirements, it seems more effort than it's worth. Healthy Dinner Party Recipes is the obvious answer, giving a variety of recipes that will tickle everyone's tastebuds. The introduction gives tips and guidelines of how to have a successful, stress-free dinner party. The recipes cover a variety of options, with simple starters and suppers, delicious dinners, outdoor food, salads and sides and finally sweet treats. There is also information on preparing and cooking times, nutritional analysis and handy tips for the less experienced cook. Healthy cooking and entertaining should always contain a variety of foods and colours, and with recipes like beetroot, tomato and coriander salad with labna, your guests are bound to be both nourished and impressed. From spiedinos of scallop, monkfish and pancetta to coconut milk, yoghurt and red chilli sorbet, healthy cooking comes alive in this essential entertaining cookbook for the 21st century.
