

Central Otago: a View from the Interior

In Central Otago: A View from the Interior, Barrie Wills captures the essence of this very picturesque part of New Zealand - the alps, lakes and rivers, the vineyards and orchards, historic stone cottages and old miners huts, the snow and the sunshine. Inspired by the wide-open spaces and the history of Central Otago, he presents images, including stunning panoramas, of the land and sky and structures that make up this awe-inspiring region.
