

Going For Impact The Nonprofit Directors Essential Guidebook: What to Know, Do and Not Do based on a veteran directors ample field experience

Going for Impact is a concise, one of-a-kind guidebook that is not about theory. It tackles the 15 topics that are most important for board directors based on extensive, time-tested experience. You'll find straight talk on directors' duties. Insights on challenges from leadership succession to measuring impact. Information on emerging trends like lean experimentation. A comprehensive index that is user-friendly. The book is for new and incumbent directors, including board veterans who want a quick reference guidebook. Also use it to enliven on-boarding sessions, enrich board retreats, embark on strategic planning, or address CEO recruitment. Nonprofit CEOs, presidents, executive directors and managers who interact regularly with their boards will also find this book a valuable resource. They will gain practical knowledge they can use to enhance their own board / management relationships.
