

Fish Friends Can Do Anything

This cute little tale about whimsical fish teaches a wonderful lesson of kindness and friendship and the power in sharing those gifts. The colorful fish each have very lovely skills. Cora, who doesn't see the beauty that she has to offer, thinks she is a boring old fish and wishes she could do the things her friends do. Her fish friends don't like to see Cora so sad and so blue, they ask her what is it Cora, what can we do? They remind Cora that she has her own beautiful qualities and they realize that together, they can do anything in friendship and love. Fish Friends contains Fish Friends Questions which are great talking points for children. Also included are Fish Friendship Cards that enable children to be fish friends and share an inspirational, friendly message. Kids can hand the cards out as they see fit to spread kindness and joy.
