

Paradise Rescued: From Cabbage Patch to Cabernet Franc

From Cabbage Patch to Cabernet Franc In 1992 when English born and educated David Stannard purchased a small holiday villa in Bordeaux, he never dreamed that one day he would be the accidental creator of a globally successful boutique winery brand. A home away from home retreat from his regular life running a petrochemical plant seemed like paradise, but when changes in the land zoning and a subsequent property development avalanche threaten the rural sustainability of his centuries old village, he had a duty to maintain the local heritage. Paradise Rescued is Davids story of how his tiny once-cabbage patch is transformed into an award winning international success - in many ways beating the French at their own game. Trial and error, but above all, the community of Cardan came together to create something truly unique.
