

Gifts for Deborah

Deborah Hayes survived unimaginable circumstance: running drugs for her brothers, numerous suicide attempts of her siblings, the death of both parents, abuse, and rape. Lack of worth, tremendous fear and anger, and self-doubt ruled her being. Deborah's story unraveled when she was committed to a treatment center after being homeless for a year. It is there that she began to understand the traumatic emotions that consumed her and that she needed to be set free. Gifts for Deborah is about resilience and survival. With each conquered adversity came gifts of importance, patience, self-forgiveness and identity. This is the story of a woman who rose like the phoenix to a life of love and self-worth.
