

God Gave Me a VERY Special Brother!

Whats it like growing up the sibling of a child with Autism in a Christian home? How can I nurture acceptance of Autism in my children? Here are some answers to those questions..from a childs perspective! What better way to teach a child how to balance Autism in their life than to have them talk to another child who is learning the same lesson? Read along as a 6 year old girl shares how the awesome love of God grows her closer to her brother, her family and the Lord in this first book of a series based on actual conversations with the authors eldest daughter.
