

Great Soup Empty Bowls: Recipes from the Empty Bowls Fundraiser

Empty Bowls is an annual event held at the Gardiner Museum in Toronto to raise money to help homeless people get off the streets with the help of the Anishnawbe Street Patrol. This cookbook marks the 10th anniversary of this successful event that combines the talents of Toronto's finest chefs and the artistic vision of Ontario's finest potters to offer a dinner comprised of soups served in original works of art. Here, for the first time, such renowned chefs as Keith Froggertt, Susur Lee, and Michael Stadlander share some of their sumptuous original recipes. All royalties from the book will be donated to the Anishnawbe Street Patrol.
