

The Memory of You

Winner of Romance Writers of America Golden Heart Award She cant forget him - he cant remember her. Together, they must discover the healing power of unforgettable love The day Lieutenant Matthew Foster departed for his so-called tour in Vietnam, he never expected a sudden change in his itinerary would include an extended stay in the horrific Hanoi Hilton. Six years later, hes finally released with the other POWs during Operation Homecoming. Unfortunately, his memories before his capture were erased by the complimentary torture provided by the hotels concierge. Due to prior facial injuries and the beard concealing his gauntness, he looks nothing like the boyish photo in his military file. When the Army informs Matt he has a wife and he was mistakenly declared dead, hes sure Abby must have made a new life for herself. He doubts the bitter man hes become can salvage the boy she once cared for, so to be fair to her, he decides to simply write a note to wish her well and leave. But before he does, he cant resist going to Redemption, PA, to catch a glimpse of the woman hed loved enough to marry. The irony of the small towns name is totally eclipsed by Matts dread that hell discover hes lost something truly worth remembering. That fear becomes reality when he learns Abby is engaged, and hes a daddy! Luckily, his wife doesnt recognize him, so Matt could still walk away from the beautiful stranger whos been starring in his X-rated dreams. However, he could never, ever abandon his sons. The clock is ticking. Any day, the military will inform Abby hes alive, and her wedding is in only six weeks. It doesnt give Matt much time to discover if he can reclaim the love the war stole from him.
