

Tadhg Kennelly: Unfinished Business

The story of one of Ireland's most intriguing GAA players. Tadhg's story is unique - he is the only Irishman to win an AFL medal in Australia. Having played at inter-county level for Kerry from an early age, in 1999 he made the momentous decision to move to Australia to play Aussie Rules football at only 18 years of age. He debuted for the Sydney Swans in 2001 and went on to become one of their star players. In 2005 he won the AFL Premiership medal with the Swans. Kennelly emerges as a thoughtful, compassionate and engaging individual.--Irish Voice
