Autobiographical in style, Accept the Challenge takes the reader back to Leigh's early childhood through to his current position as an elder statesman of the game. An honest self-appraisal, Leigh ponders the influences and experiences that shaped his character, his decisions, and ultimately his career. Leigh is extremely open as the book explores early childhood, the fortune of moving to Hawthorn, and the commencement of the shaping of his own philosophy and beliefs by legendary coaches John Kennedy, David Parkin, and Allan Jeans. It identifies with the pressures of coaching Collingwood and the relief that success delivers. The task of building a champion team in the Brisbane Lions and the different personalities that contributed to the challenge but also to the successful formula that dominated the sport at the turn of the century.
