

Olde Charlie Farquharsons Testament: From Jennysez to Jobe and after words

Originally published in 1978 by Gage Publishing as a hardcover, then as a trade paperback with sales of over 60,000 in Canada with seven printings, Olde Charlie Farquharsons Testament is truly a Canadian classic. It covers all the books of the Old Testament in Charlies own Parry Sound spellings and sayings, starting with The first book of Moeziz, Exxodust, followed by Levickedness, Nummers, Due to Run on Me, Joshawa, etc. Illustrated with line drawings and all the events in this book must be true-because Charlie is in each and every one. Charlie was conceived in 1942 when Don worked on a farm, but his actual birth was in 1952. He has appeared in Spring Thaw to Hee Haw and national tours and eleven Charlie books.
