

Picking up the pieces

Do you sometimes feel you're losing control of your life? Are you recently divorced or widowed? Is being single giving you more loneliness than pleasure? Do you want to put things back together -- if only you could? Learn how to pick up the pieces. The first, most important step is developing a healthy self-love -- learning how to trust and appreciate yourself. Picking Up The Pieces can help you with this and more -- from raising children to handling your finances, from coping with loneliness to opening yourself up to others. Clyde Colvin Besson, a minister with extensive experience in marriage and family counseling, offers comfort and guidance to the recently divorced and to anyone else struggling with feelings of despair and isolation. Picking Up the Pieces - Gentle, encouraging advice for modern living.
