The times we live in require more than just a manly man, they require a godly man. Men more than ever need to spend not just quality time with their sons, but biblical quality time with their sons. This study is a tool for dads to do just that. This study will take you through the book of Proverbs and those key issues your son will face as he pursues the life God has created him for.

God's word is living and active and is meant to transform us to be more like Christ. His word is truth and His truth is what separates us from the evil and deceptive lies that draw us away from the abundant life God has called us to. Proverbs are not just nice sounding cliches, but life changing truths. Dad, if you want to pass down something to your son that will last for eternity, spend your time handing down to him the eternal truths in Proverbs.
