

The Art of Apology: A Workbook for Resolving Conflict and Improving Relationships

Our personal and professional lives provide us with multiple opportunities for misunderstandings, conflicts, and hurt feelings. A well-done apology can go a long way toward healing a strained relationship, while a poor one can create even more disconnection and distress. This workbook, based on the authors popular workshop by the same name, walks the reader through a series of exercises designed to improve the quality of their apologies.
