

Lee Friedlander: The American Monument

With more than 200 photographs scrupulously reproduced and bound ledger-style, The American Monument is a humorous, lyrical, and excessive expression of a countrys obsession with immortalizing itself. Leslie Katz writes: This photographer in these photographs affirms the residual order in the crazy scene. He understands and brings us human civilization, embattled but intact in the various wilds of American enterprise, whether downtown, in suburbia, or on the roof. First-edition classic, essay by Leslie Katz.
