

The Downs (King of the Trees Book 5)

Trapped in a phantom forest filled with deadly creatures of the cold, Owen son of Tadmyn leads Lucambras royal family into a forbidden faery kingdom. As the long awaited shepherds son, he must sacrifice all to save his friends, restore the realm and revive lost souls. He is not alone, for a faithful ally in feathered guise will follow him to his appointed doom. The Downs is a touching tale of sacrificial devotion and valor woven into a rich retelling of ancient legend. This is the fifth book in the King of the Trees fantasy series. Seven titles have been published to date. All titles feature a glossary and pronunciation guide at the back to make for easier reading and/or reading aloud. This series is ideal for both pre-teens and teens (ages 8 and up, male or female), including young adults and adults. These books do not contain objectionable language, and appeal to those who enjoy The Chronicles of Narnia, The Hobbit, The Lord of the Rings, The Borrowers, The Wind in the Willows, and other classics. Illustrated. 224 pages.
