

The Certainty of the Unexpected (True Stories Book 20)

I wept tears of sorrow and bewilderment as I stood at Annabels grave and watched her casket lowered into the ground. I would never see her again. Her life had been tragically cut short. What if my life were to end so abruptly? I vowed to myself that her life would not be in vain. I decided that whenever I could I would tell others about the impact her death had had on me. Unbelievably, some good was now coming out of this terrible tragedy. From cult membership to freedom in Christ, from tragic loss to hope and love, Pamelas honest account of her life demonstrates how even in our seasons of pain God works all things together for good for those who love him.
