

Parents Book for New Fathers (Parents Baby and Childcare Series)

The first complete guide to pregnancy, childbirth, childcare, and child development designed exclusively for fathers -- from Americas #1 family magazine. Today more than ever before fathers share in the practical responsibilities and in the intimate rewards of raising their children. The Parents™ Book For New Fathers offers sensitive, sensible guidance for every situation you'll face from your wife's pregnancy through the first year of your baby's life. You'll learn how to:-- decide on the best time to start your family-- seek help for problems of infertility-- overcome the common worries of expectant fathers-- give your wife the support she needs-- select a birth method that's right for you and your wife-- master the practical routines of infancy, such as diaper changing, bathing, and feeding-- gauge the growth and development of your child-- meet the special challenges of being an adoptive or single father-- and much, much more. Based on the latest research and interviews with scores of new fathers, here is everything you need to know to be the father of a happy, healthy family.
