

Seven Pillars of Wisdom - a Triumph - First Trade Edition

First impression of the First Trade Edition, with the erroneous listing on p.20 of the illustration 'A Forced Landing?' on pages 302-303 (corrected in the second impression to 304-305). Lawrence's autobiographical account of his experiences as a British soldier serving as a liaison officer with rebel forces during the Arab Revolt against the Ottoman Turks of 1916 to 1918. Basis, along with the Lowell Thomas book With Lawrence in Arabia, for the 1962 film Lawrence of Arabia starring Peter O'Toole. Winston Churchill wrote: It ranks with the greatest books ever written in the English language.... 4to. 672pp. With 4 maps and 54 illustrations. Brown cloth, gilt with crossed swords device to the front boards. Rough-cut fore and bottom edges. A bright, fresh and attractive copy, with minor bumps to the boards edges and corners, otherwise clean & tight, with no markings. The dustjacket has several small spots & stains to the spine, which is sunned, and there are quite a few small chips & tears, mostly to the spine. The original 30 shilling price is present on the front flap.
