

The Essential Guide to Touring Washington Wineries

The number of Washington wineries is exploding as small and large producers craft some of the best wines in the world. This guide book can help you navigate the highways and byways of the Pacific Northwest wine country and make the most of your day-trip, weekend jaunt or week-long visit. This book includes information on 225 wineries with a description of the winery, types of wine featured, hours of operation, detailed directions and contact information. It also includes six suggested itineraries, sixteen maps of local areas, lodging and dining options, wine shops and additional tourist destinations.
