

The Prodigal Daughter

Loyce is as beautiful as she is intelligent. Like the girls in her close-knit group, she looks forward to college, marriage and a family of her own. When Loyce's friends arrange a surprise party for her, it has a life-changing consequences. The plan is for her to lose her virginity with Quintin, a charming young man who is also the local heartbreaker. Loyce and Quintin falls in love, but their joy quickly turns to sorrow when Loyce's parents renounce her wishes to marry a non-Catholic. In her time of desolation, Loyce turns away from God and the faith that has always sustained her. Read this book and join Loyce as she finds her way back to God and true love.
