

Helping Your Grandchildren Through Their Parents Divorce

The role of grandparents (GP) in today's families is more important than ever -- especially in families caught in the anguish of divorce. This guide offers practical advice & inspiration for GP trying to help their grandchildren (GC) survive their parents breakup. It illustrates: how GP should talk to GC about the divorce; hands-on activities if GP live nearby; ways to offer GC long-distance support; how to relate to the in-laws, including other GP; guidelines for maintaining family traditions; the legal rights of GP; & what to do & who to ask for legal advice, family therapy, or practical assistance. Provides state-by-state statutes on GP visitation rights.
