

The Wines of America

Regarding J. Leland Stewart, this from author Robert Balzer: Retiring meat-packing executive (Armour) Leland Stewart moved to the Napa Valley and bought a small vineyard and a tiny winery. He was still in his 40s and willing to get his hands dirty very effectively. At the California State Fair the tiny Souverain Cellars won THIRTY FOUR medals in 10 years. He thought his best wine was a Cabernet Sauvignon.
