I get it you hate your job and you hate your boss. Yah I feel for you. I can almost sense how much you dislike that guy you know that guy in your office that everybody hates. He is rude and obnoxious crazy annoying and brain-dead. Of course he makes sure to put extra effort to bother you on purpose. How about your boss? In a drone/machine like tone he is ordering you to do this and that. Endless reports, meetings and more meetings and reports. It doesnt seem like its going anywhere. You cant see promotion or anything of the likes in the horizon. Its just more work and more of the same. Everyone in the office is shaking when the boss comes by. They just gave the pink slip to some guys and gals and you could be next. Well if you are rocking and shaking in you chair in your small comfy cubichell please do me a favor and STOP! Instead imagine this: Its a beautiful day the sun is up and always up 365 days a year. You just got really wet an unexpected wave bounced in the stern of your 50 foot sail boat and surprised you pleasantly. Well, its not a big deal. You are lightly dressed short and and thats it. You are thinking Ill get a soaking wet wave any time of the day, just keep me in the Caribbean. In fact you are in the Caribbean. Not too far from Richard Bransons island. Your boat is softly gliding in the water. The wind just picked up and you had to do some work. Adjust the sail and reset the autopilot. Well you have to suffer a bit you are not exempt from work in the Caribbean. Except is something you love to do, sailing is you hobby and work and fun mix together in an inseparable tread that weaves the fabric of your life. Another boat slides by in the distance. The happy captain is waving friendly. The wind is pressing firmly on the sail and you are getting good speed of 8 knots. The water is crystal clear. You can see the marine life all the way to the bottom of the riff. All kinds of fish are swimming in pools around. You hear a loud noise of something ruddling in the baw. You quickly jump and go to see what the commotion is about. A school of dolphins about 9 of them jumping around the baw and racing with the boat. Well, life cant really get better. You enter the channel and before you know the dock master and his helpers throw a couple half hitched ties and whatever else their magic includes and now you are securely tied up and ready to go. Your fist thought is to check you trades. You placed a good trade early in the morning before leaving the island and are expecting big gains for the day. Contrary to what the public believes you know that the secrets to good trading on the island is to have a good WiFi. You get in the bar and are served something that comes with small umbrella on top. You know a painkiller or the likeness of it. You open your account and I can help, but see a big smile on your face. You are up $970 for the day. The Bernanke and all to big heads on TV did their job well. The crowd was scared the price was pushed your way and you are happy. A thousand a day keeps the boss away. Well its time to do it all over again. Place the next winning trade, close the computer and have another one of these little umbrella drinks. I have a confession to make my friend; the second scenario I gave you is my life now. What you are about to find in this book are the highly guarded secrets of the top traders in the world. You can be anything that you want to be in this world. You can even create your own reality. But that involves something called work. Thats why I have decided to create your reality for you and bring it in a silver platter in front of you. I have done all the hard work and created a winning system and strategies for you to use and prosper. Do you want to see your new reality? Would you like to even step in to it? You would if you knew whats on the other side. But it takes a step of faith. Push few buttons punch a couple mouse keys and buy this book. See you on the other side.
